

Transilvania University – Braşov

Transilvania University of Braşov is a public university located in Braşov, Romania, and the largest university in the region's central area. It's a comprehensive institution offering a wide range of study programs across various fields, including engineering, sciences, social sciences, and humanities. The university has a strong focus on knowledge transfer, research, and innovation, with a mission to engage with society through partnerships and postgraduate programs. Transilvania University of Braşov is part of the European University Alliance UNITA, promoting international collaboration.

Location: Braşov (Central Romania)

Established: 1948 (medical school later established)

Programs Offered:

General Medicine (English/Romanian)

Language of Instruction: Romanian, English

International Appeal: Moderate, newer medical faculty with modern facilities.

➤ History of Transilvania University of Brasov

Transilvania University of Brasov, also known as UniTBv, is a Romanian university located in Brasov. It was founded in 1971 through the merger of several educational institutions and faculties in the area. Today, the university has an enrollment of over 19,000 students and employs more than 700 staff members.

➤ Programs, Courses, and Faculties at Transilvania University of Brasov

Transilvania University of Braşov is the largest university in central Romania, offering a wide range of academic programs. The university provides a broad selection of programs at undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral levels. These include Mechanical Engineering, Technological Engineering, Civil Engineering, Materials Science and Engineering, Electrical Engineering and Computer Science, Food and Tourism, Wood Processing, and Forestry.

In addition, programs are available in Economics, Mathematics and Computer Science, Music, Medicine, Law, Sociology and Communication, Sports and Physical Education, Letters, Product Design and Environment, Psychology, and Education Sciences.

➤ Campus of Transilvania University of Brasov

Transilvania University of Brasov is based on a primarily urban campus situated in the city of Brasov. The campus consists of multiple buildings near the city center, many of which date back to the early 19th century.

Students benefit from a variety of facilities including libraries, modern classrooms and lecture halls, sports amenities, laboratories, computer labs with internet access, leisure and recreational spaces, student residences, and student union clubs.

➤ Achievements of Transilvania University of Brasov

The university is ranked among the top 180 institutions in the EECA University Rankings by QS World University Rankings.

Between 2007 and 2011, Scimago Lab ranked Transilvania University of Brasov 11th in Romania and 113th in the region based on its publication output.

Eligibility Criteria for studying MBBS in the University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Carol Davila

- Eligibility Criteria: Applicants must have completed their 12th grade with Biology, Physics, and Chemistry as mandatory subjects, securing a minimum of 60% marks.
- Entrance Examination: The university conducts an online entrance test primarily focused on Biology. Upon passing the test, candidates must also successfully complete an interview conducted in English to secure admission.
- English Language Proficiency: Students can present any internationally accepted English proficiency certificate like IELTS or TOEFL, or a Medium of Instruction (MOI) certificate from their previous institution, confirming at least B2 level English proficiency. Alternatively, the university offers an affordable English proficiency exam for admission purposes.

- Required Documents: Applicants need to submit essential documents such as a valid passport, national ID, 4–5 passport-sized photographs, a statement of purpose, a medical fitness certificate, and their high school academic records
- Application Timeline: The application process, including form submission, document verification, entrance exams, and interviews, typically takes place between April and September.

Admission Process in Transilvania University of Braşov

1. Online Form Submission

Complete the application form available online, ensuring all required details are provided, including a valid email address.

2. Application Fee

Make the payment for the registration or admission fee. Please note that this fee is non-refundable.

3. Document Submission

Provide the necessary documents, usually as original and certified copies. Certified translations may be required if documents are not in the official language:

High school diploma and academic transcript

Bachelor's degree certificate and transcript (if applicable)

English language proficiency proof (if required)

Official ACT or SAT scores (may not be required for some programs)

Additional program-specific materials (such as practical assessments, special exams, or a dissertation)

4. Specific Program Requirements

Doctoral Programs: A minimum GPA of 7 in both undergraduate and graduate studies is required, or other qualifications may apply based on national/international competition results.

Faculties with Entrance Exams: Programs such as Medicine, Music, and Psychology may involve written or practical entrance exams.

5. Document Delivery

Upload or send your documents via the university's official application portal or as directed by the institution.

6. Application Review

Your application and supporting documents will be reviewed by the university.

7. Admission Results

Initial admission decisions for most ends programs will be published on the university's website once the application period

FEES-7500 EURO