

Kokshetau State University

Kokshetau State University, founded in 1962, is located in Kokshetau, Kazakhstan. It is a government-run institution and one of the oldest universities in Kazakhstan offering higher medical education. It is a popular choice among students seeking to pursue MBBS in Kazakhstan. The university is recognized by the World Health Organization (WHO) and the National Medical Commission (NMC). It ranks among the top universities in Kokshetau for medical programs. The annual MBBS tuition fee for Indian students is $3,800. The monthly living expenses, including accommodation, food, transportation, and other costs, range from $100 to $118. Kokshetau State University follows the traditions of classical universities, maintaining a high level of education and research

Kokshetau State University: Quick Highlights

Why Study MBBS at Kokshetau State University?

- Kokshetau State University offers MBBS instruction in both English and Bulgarian mediums for international students.

- The university is officially recognized by prominent medical organizations such as the National Medical Commission (NMC) and the World Health Organization (WHO).
- Students receive practical training alongside theoretical lessons to gain a thorough understanding of medical concepts.
- MBBS students at Kokshetau State University also participate in various extracurricular activities.
- The Kokshetau State university boasts a team of professional and highly qualified faculty members who provide top-quality medical education.
- Students have opportunities to take part in scientific research, seminars, and presentations held in the university's spacious, well-equipped auditorium.
- The medical degree awarded by the university is accepted worldwide.
- Candidates develop their athletic skills by engaging in sports activities during their studies.
- Kokshetau State University offers a wide range of programs and has modern facilities to support student learning

Kokshetau State University: Recognition & Accreditation

- National Medical Commission (NMC)
- World Health Organization (WHO)
- Ministry of Education and Science of the Republic of Kazakhstan

Admission Process

Admission to the MBBS program at Kokshetau State University depends on several factors, including academic performance, English proficiency, and sometimes entrance exams. Candidates must have completed 10+2 with at least 62% aggregate marks in Physics, Chemistry, and Biology (PCB). For university entrance exams, candidates need to score a minimum of 50% in Biology and Chemistry. The minimum age requirement is 17 years, or the candidate must turn 17 by December 31 of the admission year. Indian students must have cleared 10+2 with at least 50% aggregate marks (40% for SC/ST/OBC) and must pass the NEET exam.

All Admission procedures will be guided by ICD

Kokshetau State University: Eligibility Criteria

The eligibility requirements for admission are:

- Pass 10+2 with at least 50% aggregate marks in PCB (40% for SC/ST/OBC)
- Qualify the NEET exam
- Demonstrate English proficiency
- Be at least 17 years old by December 31 of the admission year
- Submit all required documents
- Hold a valid visa

Kokshetau State University: Documents Required

Applicants must provide the following documents:

- 10th and 12th-grade mark sheets
- Transfer certificate
- 10 passport-sized photographs
- Migration certificate
- Birth certificate
- Passport (valid for at least 18 months)
- Official invitation letter from the Medical University of Bulgaria
- Visa fee payment receipt
- HIV test report